

Nominations to Risk Committees

Clearing Members and customers of Clearing Members are invited to nominate individuals to serve on the Clearing House’s two Risk Committees, the Risk Advisory Working Group (RWG) and the Risk Management Committee (RMC). Both committees have membership from representatives of Clearing Members and customers of Clearing Members and meet a minimum of twice per year.

Risk Advisory Working Group

The RWG serves as a forum to seek and receive risk-based views from market participants in order to provide comments to MGEX and the RMC on matters with a material impact on the risk profile of the MGEX Clearing House with the goal of protecting the integrity of MGEX’s markets. Individual(s) nominated must have relevant risk experience that will allow him or her to offer informed opinions on matters presented to the RWG.

Risk Management Committee

The RMC serves as a forum for its members to provide informed, risk-based opinions to MGEX and the MGEX Board of Directors on matters with a material impact on the risk profile of the MGEX Clearing House with the goal of supporting the safety and efficiency of the Clearing House and the stability of the broader financial system. All substantive feedback provided by the RMC will be presented to the MGEX Board of Directors for consideration.

RMC members serve two-year terms, with the ability to serve up to two consecutive terms. Individual(s) nominated must work in risk management capacities at the market participant firm or have significant background and expertise in such areas.
