Background Information on the Fund

Elevation Series Trust (the “Trust”) is a management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”), consisting of several investment portfolios. The shares of the Fund are referred to herein as “Shares”.

The investment objective of TrueShares Seasonality Laddered Buffered ETF (the “Fund”) is capital appreciation with the potential for lower volatility relative to the broader U.S. large cap equity market. The Fund is an actively managed exchange-traded fund (“ETF”) that seeks to achieve its investment objective by using a fund-of-funds approach. The Fund's investment adviser, TrueMark Investments, LLC, invests in a portfolio of ETFs with returns (before fees and expenses) linked to a broad-based securities market price index representing 500 U.S. predominantly large capitalization companies (the "Index") and ETFs with an investment strategy significantly exposed to securities or indexes that are representative of U.S. large capitalization companies. The Fund defines large-capitalization companies as those with market capitalizations above $10 billion at the time of investment. As of November 29, 2024, a significant portion of the Index is represented by securities of companies in the technology sector. The components of the Index are likely to change over time. The Index-linked ETFs employ a buffered strategy and the other ETFs employ a general hedging strategy.

Buffered refers to a strategy that uses options to seek to mitigate losses. The Buffered ETFs (defined below) selected by the adviser employ a "buffer protect" options strategy that uses options on the Index or an ETF that seeks to track the performance of the Index to seek to achieve exposure to the upside performance of the Index over a 12-month period (an "Investment Period") (before fees and expenses) while seeking to protect against the first 8% to 12% of Index losses (before fees and expenses) over the duration of the Investment Period. However, the Buffered ETFs will bear all Index losses exceeding their respective buffer. The buffer is designed to provide the stated protection only if shares of a Buffered ETF are purchased on the first day of an Investment Period (an "Initial Investment Day") and held until the last day of the Investment Period. The Buffered ETFs' performance during an Investment Period may not provide the protection of the buffer. At the conclusion of each one-year Investment Period, a new one-year Investment Period begins and the buffer is reset. Due to the fees and expenses of the Buffered ETFs, and partially due to the cost of the options used by the Buffered ETFs, a Buffered ETF's performance is expected to be less than that of the Index, and could be substantially less. Each Buffered ETF also invests in U.S. Treasury bills or money market funds that invest in U.S. Treasury bills, which contributes income and partial principal protection to each Buffered ETF's return profile. Unlike the Buffered ETFs, the Fund itself does not pursue a buffered strategy. The buffer is only provided by the Buffered ETFs and the Fund itself does not provide any stated buffer against losses.

Laddered in the Fund's name refers to the adviser's selection of a portfolio of the Buffered ETFs that, in total, represent a reset in each of the 12 months, January through December. The adviser believes this time ladder approach will help reduce the risk of single-month unfavorable outcomes. It creates diversification of investment time periods compared to the risk of acquiring or disposing of any one Buffered ETF at any one time, which mitigates the risk of failing to benefit from the buffer of a single Buffered ETF due to the timing of investment in such Buffered ETF. Depending on when the Fund acquires shares of a Buffered ETF, even with a laddered approach, the buffer of a Buffered ETF may be exhausted and the Fund may receive no benefit from the buffer unless the Fund acquires shares of the Buffered ETF on an Initial Investment Day. The Fund does not typically buy shares on the Initial Investment Day nor sell shares at the end of an Investment Period. Because of the timing of the Fund's purchases and sales of the Buffered ETFs, the Fund will likely not receive the full benefit of the Buffered ETFs' buffers.

The Fund will issue and redeem Shares on a continuous basis at their net asset value ("NAV") only in large blocks of 10,000 Shares (each, a "Creation Unit"). Creation Units will be issued and redeemed principally in-kind for securities included in the underlying index. Except when aggregated in Creation Units, the Shares may not be redeemed with the Fund.

Shares are held in book-entry form, which means that no Share certificates are issued. The Depository Trust Company or its nominee is the record owner of all outstanding Shares of the Funds and is recognized as the owner of all Shares for all purposes.

The NAV per Share for each Fund is computed by dividing the value of the net assets of the Fund (i.e., the value of its total assets less total liabilities) by the total number of Shares outstanding. Expenses and fees are accrued daily and taken into account for purposes of determining NAV. The NAV of each Fund is determined each business day after the close of trading (ordinarily 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time or “ET”) of the New York Stock Exchange. Any assets or liabilities denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar are converted into U.S. dollars at the current market rates on the date of valuation as quoted by one or more sources.

Principal Risks

Interested persons are referred to the discussion in the prospectus for the Fund of the principal risks of an investment in the Fund. These include tracking error risk (factors causing a Fund’s performance to not match the performance of its underlying index), market trading risk (for example, trading halts, trading above or below net asset value), investment style risk, sector risk, investment approach risk, non - diversification risk, issuer-specific risk, management risk, concentration risk, equity securities risk, and passive investment risk.

Exemptive, Interpretive and No-Action Relief Under Federal Securities Regulations

The Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) has issued letters granting exemptive, interpretive and no-action relief from certain provisions of rules under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for exchange-traded securities listed and traded on a registered national securities exchange that meet certain criteria. AS WHAT FOLLOWS IS ONLY A SUMMARY OF THE RELIEF OUTLINED IN THE NO-ACTION LETTERS REFERENCED ABOVE, THE EXCHANGE ADVISES INTERESTED PARTIES TO CONSULT THE NO-ACTION LETTERS FOR MORE COMPLETE INFORMATION REGARDING THE MATTERS COVERED THEREIN AND THE APPLICABILITY OF THE RELIEF GRANTED IN RESPECT OF TRADING IN SECURITIES. INTERESTED PARTIES SHOULD ALSO CONSULT THEIR PROFESSIONAL ADVISORS.

Regulation M Exemptions

Generally, Rules 101 and 102 of Regulation M prohibit any “distribution participant” and its “affiliated purchasers” from bidding for, purchasing, or attempting to induce any person to bid for or purchase any security which is the subject of a distribution until after the applicable restricted period, except as specifically permitted in Regulation M. The provisions of the Rules apply to underwriters, prospective underwriters, brokers, dealers, and other persons who have agreed to participate or are participating in a distribution of securities.

The SEC has granted an exemption from Rule 101 under Regulation M to permit persons participating in a distribution of shares of the above-mentioned Fund to engage in secondary market transactions in such shares during their participation in such a distribution. In addition, the SEC has granted relief under Regulation M to permit persons who may be deemed to be participating in the distribution of Shares of the above-mentioned Fund (i) to purchase securities for the purpose of purchasing Creation Unit Aggregations of Fund Shares and (ii) to tender securities for redemption in Creation Unit Aggregations. Further, the SEC has clarified that the tender of Fund Shares to the Fund for redemption does not constitute a bid for or purchase of any of the Fund’s securities during the restricted period of Rule 101. The SEC has also granted an exemption pursuant to paragraph (e) of Rule 102 under Regulation M to allow the redemption of Fund Shares in Creation Unit Aggregations during the continuous offering of Shares.

Rule 10b-10 (Customer Confirmations for Creation or Redemption of Fund Shares)

Broker-dealers who handle purchases or redemptions of Fund Shares in Creation Unit size for customers will be permitted to provide such customers with a statement of the number of Creation Unit Aggregations created or redeemed without providing a statement of the identity, number and price of shares of the individual securities tendered to the Fund for purposes of purchasing Creation Unit Aggregations (“Deposit Securities”) or the identity, number and price of shares to be delivered by the Trust for the Fund to the redeeming holder (“Redemption Securities”). The composition of the securities required to be tendered to the Fund for creation purposes and of the securities to be delivered on redemption will be disseminated each business day and will be applicable to requests for creations or redemption, as the case may be, on that day. This exemptive relief under Rule 10b-10 with respect to creations and redemption is subject to the following conditions:

- 1) Confirmations to customers engaging in creations or redemptions must state that all information required by Rule 10b-10 will be provided upon request;
- 2) Any such request by a customer for information required by Rule 10b-10 will be filed in a timely manner, in accordance with Rule 10b-10(c); and
- 3) Except for the identity, number, and price of shares of the component securities of the Deposit Securities and Redemption Securities, as described above, confirmations to customers must disclose all other information required by Rule 10b-10(a).

Rule 10b-17 (Untimely Announcement of Record Dates)

The SEC has granted an exemption from the requirements of Rule 10b-17 that will cover transactions in the Shares.

Section 11(d)(1); Rule 11d1-2 (Customer Margin)

The SEC has taken a no-action position under Section 11(d)(1) that will permit broker-dealers that do not create Shares but engage in both proprietary and customer transactions in such Shares exclusively in the secondary market to extend or maintain or arrange for the extension or maintenance of credit on the Shares, in connection with such secondary market transactions. For broker-dealers that engage in the creation of Shares, the SEC has also taken a no-action position under Rule 11d1-2 that will cover the extension or maintenance or the arrangement for the extension or maintenance of credit on the Shares that have been owned by the persons to whom credit is provided for more than 30 days.

Rule 14e-5

An exemption from Rule 14e-5 has been granted to permit any person acting as a dealer-manager of a tender offer for a component security of the Fund (1) to redeem Fund Shares in Creation Unit Aggregations from the issuer that may include a security subject to such tender offer and (2) to purchase Fund Shares during such tender offer. In addition, a no-action position has been taken under Rule 14e-5 if a broker-dealer acting as a dealer-manager of a tender offer for a security of the Fund purchases or arranges to purchase such securities in the secondary market for the purpose of tendering such securities to purchase one or more Creation Unit Aggregations of Shares, if made in conformance with the following:

- 1) such bids or purchases are effected in the ordinary course of business, in connection with a basket of 20 or more securities in which any security that is the subject of a distribution, or any reference security, does not comprise more than 5% of the value of the basket purchase; or
- 2) purchases are effected as adjustments to such basket in the ordinary course of business as a result of a change in the composition of the underlying index; and
- 3) such bids or purchases are not effected for the purpose of facilitating such tender offer.

SEC Rule 15c1-5 and 15c1-6 (Disclosure of Control and interest in Distributions)

The SEC has taken a no-action position under Rule 15c1-5 that will permit a broker-dealer to execute transactions in Shares without disclosing any control relationship with an issuer of a component security. In addition, the SEC has taken a no-action position under Rule 15c1-6 that will permit a broker dealer to execute transactions in the Shares without disclosing its participation or interest in a primary or secondary distribution of a component security.
